

I oppose the changes to the Ownership rules for TV/Radio being considered on June 2.

The airwaves are owned by people through the government. It is not in the best interest of the US to have fewer companies own more stations.